

Joint Membership 3C4A/N4A Information

The Community College Counselor/Advisor Academic Association for Athletics (3C4A) invites you to be a member of an exciting and energetic group of educational professionals. This diverse and motivating group of counselors, advisors and academic support staff creates and develops the opportunities for those students who choose to enroll and participate in the intercollegiate sports and accept the unusual demands placed on them as student athletes. This association has a purpose to support, counsel and assist the student athletes in their pursuit of the educational, personal and athletic goals while in attendance at the two-year college. The personal, career, and athletic goals of the student will primarily be achieved through the support of the members of this association with the timely, informed, competent counseling and advising as well as acting as a liaison between the academic and athletic communities on campus. Professionals within this association, both new and seasoned will gain invaluable information and an opportunity to exchange philosophies, activities, materials and programs that would best enhance student success.
